CAPE SOUNIO

GREECE

Welcome to the miracle of Greece

Celebrate the moment...

...at Greece's
cape of myth

Where the wonders of ancient Greece embrace the glorious sea, drawing it towards a cosmopolitan coastline dotted with lavish villas. This is Cape Sounio; it's not just a resort: it's an experience. Here, beneath the imposing Temple of Poseidon, an alluring sanctuary with impressive Doric columns, private villas rise along stone-paved paths shaded by olive trees and pines.

Cape Sounio Beach

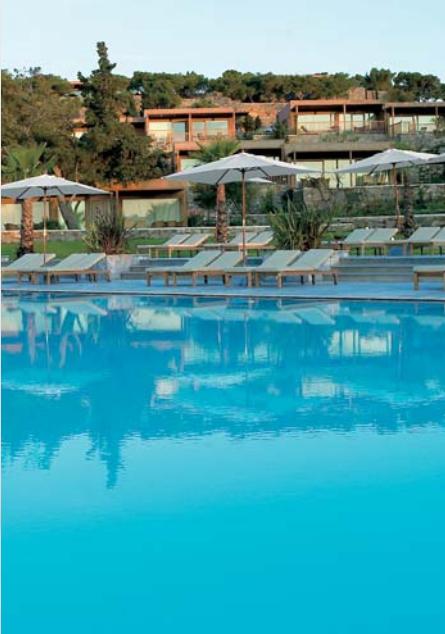

Days & nights

This is life at its finest. This is a place of magic, where the Aegean starts and where history stands the test of time. Fragrant pine trees bending over private pools whose waters reflect glittering skies and heighten the sense of pleasure and peace.

Seize the moment

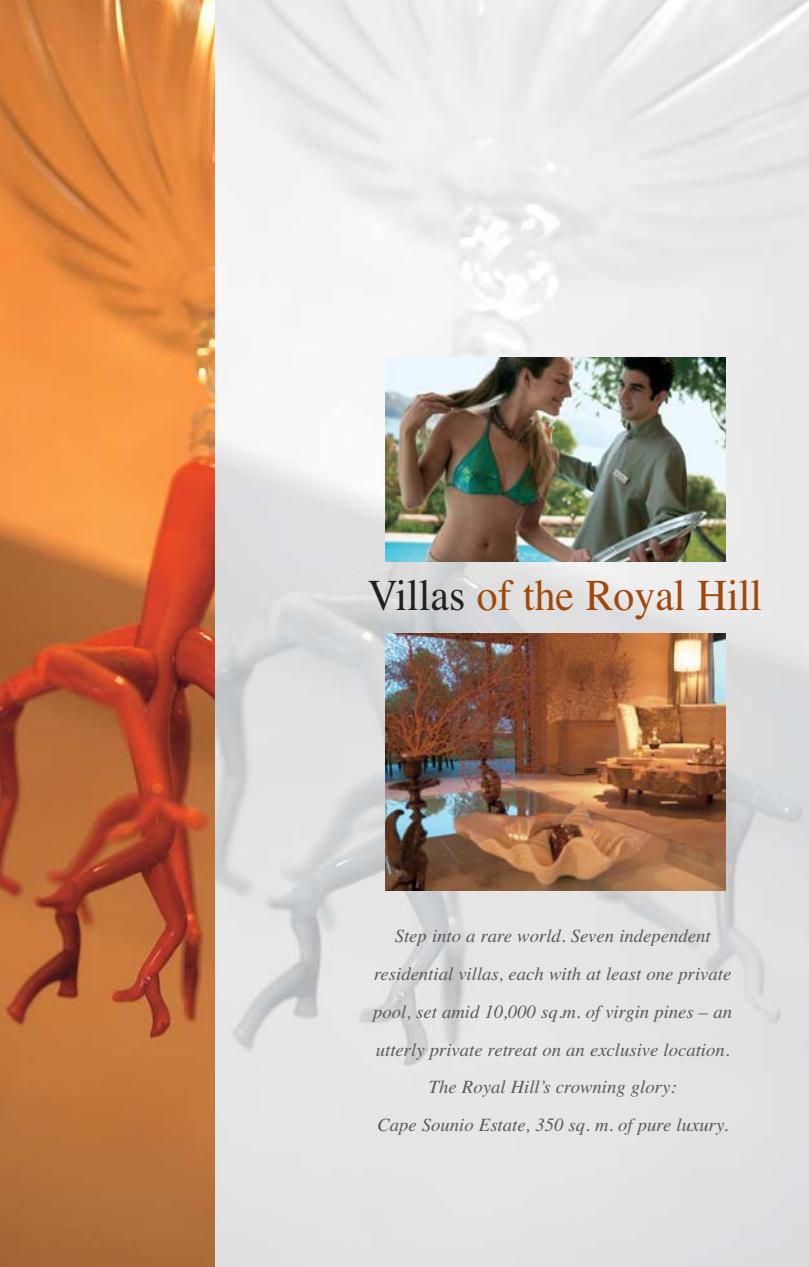

Surrender to the absolute luxury of a totally private villa, furnished for supreme comfort with details like weathered-bronze doors, frosted-crystal doors, electric blinds, and snowfish end-tables. Floor-to-ceiling sliding glass windows let you enjoy the view, whether curled up on the sofa or stretched out on the terrace.

Pine Hill Residence

Villas of the Royal Hill

Step into a rare world. Seven independent residential villas, each with at least one private pool, set amid 10,000 sq.m. of virgin pines – an utterly private retreat on an exclusive location.

*The Royal Hill's crowning glory:
Cape Sounio Estate, 350 sq. m. of pure luxury.*

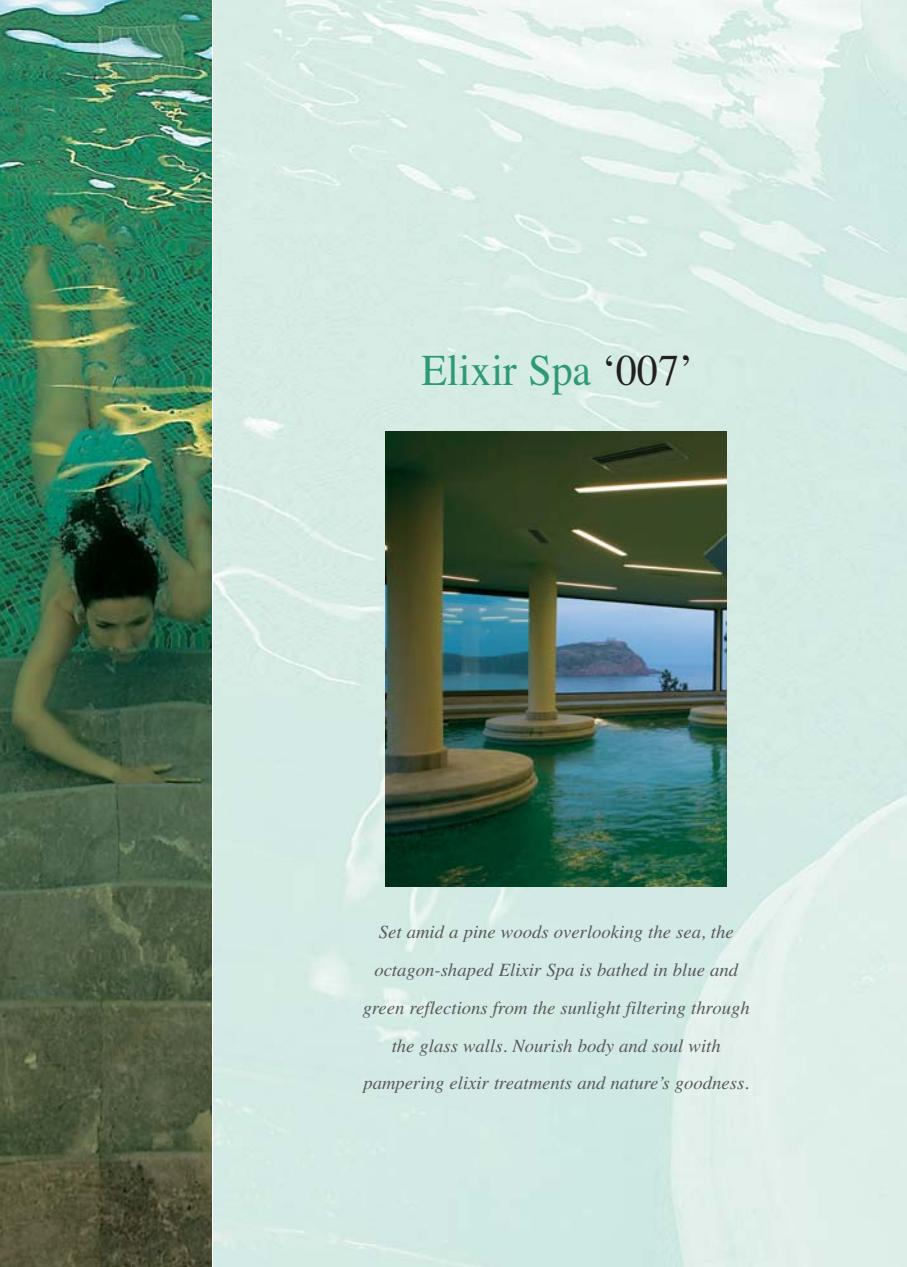

SOUNIADA, AEGEA, THESEUS, TRIERES, ARIADNE, MINOTAUR, MINOICA:

The names of the Royal Hill Villas tell the legend of the Aegean. Theseus was the son of King Aegeus and the greatest hero of Athens. He set sail on a trieres, to the palace of Minos where the king's daughter Ariadne helped him slay the Minotaur and free the city of Athens from its debt to Crete. The Aegean Sea was named after King Aegeus, who threw himself off Sounio Temple because he thought that Minotaur had killed his son.

Elixir Spa '007'

Set amid a pine woods overlooking the sea, the octagon-shaped Elixir Spa is bathed in blue and green reflections from the sunlight filtering through the glass walls. Nourish body and soul with pampering elixir treatments and nature's goodness.

Taste of the Unique

The in-room dining service is set up to cater to your heart's desire, even a candlelit gourmet feast for two served by your own plunge pool. Savor the chef's fusion of international and Greek at the open-air terrace of the Gourmet Restaurant with a superb view of the sea and the Temple of Poseidon. 'Cavo Kolones' with farm fresh menu, perches atop a pine-clad cliff; 'So Oriental' feeds a funkier mood, with creative cuisine whipped up by an Asian chef, while the seafood kebabs and finger food at the 'Turquoise' Beach Restaurant strike a more casual note.

JEAN-MICHEL
COUSTEAU'S
AMBASSADORS OF THE ENVIRONMENT

Ambassadors of the Environment by Jean-Michel Cousteau introduces young people to the natural wonders of Greece. Sounio's ecological and cultural resources become a natural classroom and living laboratory in which kids and teenagers learn while having so much fun that they never imagine that it's educational. Through exploration and active study, our ambassadors have a deep appreciation and respect for nature as well as an understanding of how to live more sustainably back home.
